REMARKS: The attached memorandum has been submitted as a result of questions raised by Operating and Administrative officials and in view of the fact, it has been the general policy of the Budget Office to refrain from permitting excess costs occasioned by individual desires of dependents and employees. However, in view of Public Law 110, and possible adverse morale factors if too strict a policy is followed, it is believed advisable to review the entire problem. Further details and examples are available to supplement the memorandum.
